The article has been retracted titled “Symbolic Violence in Patriarchal Language Culture Against Women: A Sociolinguistic Analysis of English Education Students in Indonesian Higher Education”^[1].

Following its publication, the publisher received a complaint indicating that the article bore similarities to a previously published work entitled “Kekerasan Simbolik terhadap Perempuan dalam Budaya Patriarki”^[2]. In accordance with our complaints procedure, the editorial office and the Editorial Board conducted an investigation, which confirmed extensive overlap with the aforementioned source.

As a result, the Editorial Board decided to retract the article. This retraction was approved by the Editor-in-Chief of Forum for Linguistic Studies. All authors have agreed to the retraction.
