Dear Editor,

On behalf of the other author, I am pleased to submit an original research article entitled “Empirical Wavelet Transform; Stationary and Nonstationary Signals” by Hesam Akbari (my graduated MSc. student) and Sedigheh Ghofrani for consideration by the Journal of Electronic & Information System. I confirm that this work is original and has not been published nor is it currently under consideration for publication elsewhere.

At the end, I would like to thank you for your consideration of this manuscript and thank in advance the reviewers for the time they spend in the careful reading of our paper.

Yours Faithfully,
Sedigheh Ghofrani
Associate Professor
